The following, from the pen of Bob Burdette, is not half bad:

"My son follow not in the footsteps of the loafer, and make no example of him who is born tired, for verily I say unto you their business is overstocked, the seats are all taken and the whittling places are all in use. It is better to saw wood at two bits a cord than to whittle in a loafing match and abuse the government. My son, whilst thou hast left in thy skull the sense of a jaybird, break away from the cigarette habit, for lo! thy breath stinketh like a glue factory and thy whole appearance is less intelligent than the store dummy. Yes, thou art a cipher with the rim knocked off."

A man who was afraid of thunder crawled into a hollow log as a place of safety during a thunder storm. The thunder rolled and the rain poured down in torrents, and the old log began to swell up till the poor fellow was wedged in so tight that he could not get out. All his past sins began to pass before him. Suddenly he remembered he hadn't paid his newspaper subscription, and he felt so small that he was able to back right out.—Ex.

The other day a man happened to stroll into a store where they don't advertise, and was looking around among the relics of ancient days stored there, when he ran accross a man who was wanted on a charge of murder, and who had remained safely hidden there for years.—Ex.

Conference at Rotterdam.

Prest. Joseph F. Smith and wife, Bishop Nibley, wife and daughters, Prest Clawson of the European mission, Prest McKay of the Swiss and German mission and about 200 elders from Germany, England and Scotland joined Prest. B. G. Thatcher and his bunch of truth spreaders in one of the greatest conferences ever held in the Missionary fields of this country.

The conference was opened Sunday morning July 24th, at 10 o'clock, in the Verlooy social hall. After the opening exercises, Prest. Thatcher bore his testimony and delivered a welcome address. Apostle Clawson then spoke of his travels throughout the different missions and referred to conditions in various localities and bore a strong testimony. Prest. Jos. F. Smith then addressed the meeting on the truthfulness of the gospel and the work of the Latter-day saints. During the meeting Elder Ebenezer Kirkham, who has just been released to return home from the German mission, rendered a fine vocal solo. The attendance at the meeting was about 1,200 people.

At 2 p. m. the conference convened and after the opening exercises the following speakers addressed the meeting: Elder Korthals, Bp. Nibley and Prest. McKay. Attendance 1,000.

Another session was held in the evening and this meeting was addressed by Elder W. J. LeBry, Elder Jas. H. Welber, and Prest. Jos. F. Smith. Over 1,600 people turned out to this session. Our fine choir rendered excellent music for all the meetings and sang English and Dutch anthems. 1,300 books were disposed of.

Monday morning a Priesthood meeting was held at the Excelsior hall and some splendid advise and instructions were given by Prest. Thatcher, Prest. Jos. F. Smith, Bp. Nibley and a number of the conference presidents reported the various branches. A German quartette was rendered by the Elders from that locality and Elders Van Durrin and Wright both sang vocal solos.

We met again Tuesday morning July 26th, and the following speakers addressed the meeting: Prest. Walker, Prest Cannon, Prest. Woolley, Elder Thomas, Elder Alexander, Elder Korthals and Prest. Thurman.

A vocal solo was rendered by Elder Keddington.

Tuesday afternoon another session was held at which meeting the following speakers gave good council. Prest. McKay, Prest. Hansen, Prest. Bennion, Prest. Rollap, Prest. McKayon Prest. Rich and conference presidents of the Swiss and German missions. Prest. McKay then released a number of Elders who have served their time. During the meeting a double quartette was sung by German Elders, also solos by Elder Kirkham and Horn.

Wednesday, July 27th, the following mission presidents addressed a well attended meeting: Elders Parson, Clayton Eccles, Cannon and Douglas. Apostle Clawson then congratulated the elders for the good work they were doing and Presidents Thatcher and McKay made a few remarks. During the meeting Elder Horn sang a solo and a chorus was rendered by elders from the Netherlands mission. Thus ended the great conference and everybody had a splendid feast of spiritual things.

Among the crowd was Elder Walter Michaelis of Garland. He is enjoying his labors and doing good work.

We also had some sports during conference week. Saturday July 23rd, the Lieage and Rdan conference crossed bats with Amsterdam, Arubem and Grovinger conferences, resulting in a victory for Rdan in a score of 18 to 7. The German and Holland Elders played an interesting game. Result: Germany 7; Holland 5. Some horse races were run and Germany carried off all the laurals.

The work is progressing and the elders are enjoying good health and feel well in spirit.

Wishing you all the chocest blessings of God, I am your brother in the Gospel.
